

What You Can See From The Light

Crafting Redemptive Art for Sacred or Secular Venues
Trina Coleman, Sojourne / FCF Baltimore

What Do You Think When You Hear...

Art?

Christian Art?

Art made by a Christian?

—
-Fujimura, Soliloquies - Joy

Fujimura, Silence - Kairos

Define Purpose

*...to comfort all who mourn; and provide for those who grieve in Zion.
to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes,
the oil of joy instead of mourning
and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair.*

Isaiah 61:2-3

Equip

Yourself & Creatives Around You

Exodus 31

Be Released

Art Cannot be a Summary of Faith Squished into Every Piece

Be Authentic

Not Agenda-Driven

Encourage

Creatives Around You

Build

A Safe Space to Share & Collaborate

Advent Concert

What If... ?

...we committed to speaking fresh creativity and vision into culture rather than denouncing and boycotting other cultural products?

...we empower the 'border-stalkers' (outsiders) in our communities, support and send them out?

...we, like Mahalia Jackson, stood behind our preachers, or our MLK Jr.'s, and exhorted them to 'tell 'em about the Dream'?

---

Fujimura, Golden Sea

An abstract painting featuring dynamic, swirling brushstrokes in various shades of blue, from deep navy to light sky blue, set against a white background. The composition suggests the movement and texture of waves or perhaps a celestial nebula. The paint is applied with visible, energetic strokes, creating a sense of depth and motion.

I am not a Christian artist. I am a Christian, yes, and an artist. I dare not treat the powerful presence of Christ in my life as an adjective... It is time for followers of Christ to let Christ be the noun in our lives, to let our whole being ooze out like a painter's colors with the splendor and the mystery of Christ, the inexhaustible beauty that draws people in. It is time to follow the Spirit into the margins and outside the doors of the church.

- Fujimura, Walking on Water - Waves

Is he - quite safe? I shall feel rather nervous about meeting a lion.

*... Safe? Who said anything about safe? 'Course he isn't safe.
But he's good. He's the King.*

- C.S. Lewis, The Lion, The Witch, & The Wardrobe

Trina Coleman
sojourneband@gmail.com
sojourneband.com